Gelderland, Netherlands<sup>23</sup>. He died on 28 Jun 1908 in Wisconsin, USA<sup>24</sup>. He married Gerritjen Bruggink, daughter of Antonij Bruggink and Harmina Ansink, on 06 Jan 1854 in Dinxperlo, Gelderland, Netherlands<sup>25</sup>. Notes for Hermanus Antonius Goldbach:

Hermannus, his wife Gerritje, and four children came from the Netherlands to Wisconsin in August 1865. Two more children were born in Alto, Fond du Lac County, Wisconsin. Hermannus was the only member of his family to immigrate to the U.S. His parents, three brothers, and three sisters stayed in Dinxperlo, Gelderland Province, Netherlands. Two of the immigrant Veleke brothers married Goldbach sisters. Hermanus Veleke married Diena Goldbach. These two are the ancestors of all of the Velekes in Beaver Dam. My ancestor, Gerrit Jan Veleke married Hermina Goldbach.

The Goldbach family came to the Netherlands in 1777. Before that, this family was from Germany. Several generations were very close to the Germany/Netherlands border. They lived in the towns of Wertherbruch, Wulfrath, Ratigen, and Homberg in the Nordrhein-Westfalen region of Germany. The oldest Goldbach I found came from Dresden in far eastern Germany. Only Petrus and one sister moved to the Netherlands. The rest of the family stayed in Northwestern Germany.

I have records to prove the relationships back to Petrus and his arrival in the Netherlands. Researching in Germany is something new to me. It will take some time for me to learn how to research in Germany. The five generations of the Goldbach family living in Germany come from family trees I found on Dutch and German family tree sites. Since three different trees between these sites were almost identical, I am comfortable claiming them as our family. Eventually I need to find birth, marriage, death records, and more to prove that are definitely our family.

Great Aunt Ellen researched several of our families and shared her research with me. She told me she thought the Goldbach family might be Jewish. The first five men in this report were all Protestant ministers. In some cases, more than one brother also became a minister. I do not know if these Protestant ministers were Lutheran, Methodist, Calvinist, or something else. Once I have a better understanding of German records, I hope I can figure it out. The Germans have the habit of calling the Protestant churches by the town name, Wertherbruch Church. This is not helpful when town histories state there were more than one Protestant church in a town.
